

Dear Parents,

We have attached several math and language art websites. These websites are free to use and we highly recommend them.

Please use the time over this closure to access these websites and always remember to read with your child.

Safe sites to use at home:

Mrs Handley' Symbaloo has many links that are safe to use for kindergarten students. Put this in your favorites bar and the children can look for the blue circle just like in class.

Lexia Core5

ST Math

Starfall

All of the links to these sites are in the symbaloo for easy access.

Scholastic has a great site that is free to join for great books each day

Epic it's a digital library with 30,000+ kids books at your fingertips. You can read on any device, and find everything from National Geographic titles, STEM books and videos, to fun chapter books (my son is obsessed with Bad Kitty).

Daily Schedule

Lexia, STMath, and Starfall can all be reached through Symbaloo.
